Source: Harbour Post
Event: L1

The renovated central library was reopened by the mayor on Saturday.
The two year project added a children's wing and a rooftop garden for readers.
Officials put the total cost of the work at 46 crore rupees.
The library will now stay open until ten at night on weekdays.
Several staff members said the old card catalogue has been fully digitised.